Bennett Bean

Bio

Bennett Bean is a quintessential American polymath. Formally trained in fine art, he is best known as a ceramic artist but works in a range of media including stone, precious metals, paper, parchment and painting. Bennett has been making things, prolifically, since 1960, full time in studio for that last 25 years. His work is represented by numerous galleries as well as in major museum collections nationwide including the Whitney Museum of American Art and the White House Art Collection.
